Verse 1

You redeem my lost and wasted days
You satisfy and fill the empty space
You lift my head and crown me
With love and compassion abounding
It's what You've always done
And who You've always been

Chorus

I remember the touch that mended
all my wounds and scars
And I haven't forgotten the love that's carried me this far
I find the strength for tomorrow
When I trust in You today
Cause I've got a real good memory of Your
Your faithfulness

Verse 2

Ever present, the Light that guides my way
Everlasting, the measure of Your grace
Infinite distance, You've placed between me and my sin
It's what You've always done
And who You've always been

Chorus

I remember the touch that mended
all my wounds and scars
And I haven't forgotten the love that's
carried me this far
I find the strength for tomorrow
When I trust in You today
Cause I've got a real good memory of Your
Your faithfulness

Bridge 1

It's impossible, just not possible
To ever forget Your benefits
'Cause they are never-ending
It's impossible, can't be possible
To ever forget how good You've been Too good to not remember

Bridge 2

It's impossible, just not possible
To ever forget Your benefits
'Cause they are never-ending
It's impossible, can't be possible
To ever forget how good You've been
Too good to not remember

Refrain

Too good to not remember

Too good to not remember

Chorus
